Moonrise (Low Red Moon #2) by Ivy Devlin

Low Red Moon has a good transition in the plot, from murder mystery to direct supernatural.

Furthermore, the backdrop of the forest, and how most things happen at night gives a very eerie feel and setting. And whenever Avery and Ben gets together, this shifts to become a romantic

As with the crop of paranormal young adult novels lately, in Low Red Moon by Ivy Devlin there is a mysterious boy hiding a secret. Ben, our mystery boy, falls for Avery without any real explanation. I mean, he shows up in school, wearing moccasins, then 20 pages later they are making out, for some odd reason.
