Bad boys don't get scared at all and in most cases, they simply act or speak on instinct. When a bad boy wants to hold a woman's hand, he simply grabs it. When a bad boy wants to kiss her, there is no beating around the bush: the bad boy will pull her towards him and simply kiss her.

No Promises is a bit of a typical New Adult romance fiction that made me feel fuzzy and contented. I just feel it had so much more potential based on its synopsis. The story started out as if it were a young adult novel - female protagonist has a seemingly unrequited crush on her perfect cousin's ex-boyfriend who seems to not have given up on that said cousin.

A bad boy knows what he wants from a partner and is honest about it (see step six under Part One.) There's no shame in pursuing purely sexual relationships as long as you're honest about it. Similarly, having a long-term girlfriend doesn't mean you have to be less of a bad boy. Below are some tips for handling the fairer sex like a true bad boy.

“There are no bad boys. There is only bad environment, bad training, bad example, bad thinking.”
“When parents fail to do their job, when they allow their children to run the streets and keep bad company, when they fail to provide them with good examples in the home, then the parents, and not the children, are delinquent.”
