Finally, a word from an old friend. She was online for only a brief instant before she severed her communication channel, probably to continue to fly under the radar and avoid Omnivore. My guess is, given this new information, that a new status quo may already have come into play with regards to Niantic's shuttered Geneva facility; although I do not yet have any evidence to confirm ...

Niantic Project

Definitely don't bother if you don't play Ingress; but even if you do, probably still don't bother. It's supposed to be telling the story of the early days of the Niantic Project, and follows a couple of the main characters through various escapades. But the writing is pretty horrific.
